Saskatchewan Co-operation and Co-operative Development

The Department of Co-operation and Co-operative Development aims to help Saskatchewan people improve the quality of their lives by developing and using co-operatives to better their social and economic environment. This aim is pursued through the development, information, research, regulatory, advisory, and other services of the Department.

A. E. Mulholland,
Director,
Examination Services Branch

C. W. Norman,
Assistant Director,
Registry Division

Dale W. Folstad,
Deputy Minister

Honourable Jack Sandberg,
Minister

P R E F A C E

This supplement to the annual report covers statistical data, charts and tables pertaining to various types of co-operatives in Saskatchewan falling within the jurisdiction of the Examination Services Branch of the Department.

A fieldstaff is maintained to assist co-operative associations of all types with special problems that may develop in the operations.

The addresses of the district offices will be found on the following page. Assistance can be obtained by communicating directly with these offices or with the Regina office.
